

AF-Colenco AG is a successful Swiss engineering company with 250 employees belonging to the world-wide operating AF Group. We are specialized in the fields of energy and environmental technology with the main goal to provide specialized consulting and information services based on experience and know-how. Our engineers are specialists and all-rounders ensuring the market success of our company as well as our dynamic growth.

To strengthen our Hydropower department in Switzerland and for projects abroad we are looking for a

Senior Dam Engineer – For a competitive Dam solution: CFRD Know-how strengthening

University degree in Civil Engineering or other relevant disciplines required

We offer up-to-date workplaces and challenging assignments:

a friendly professional team environment committed to quality • a platform for genuine career development • challenging assignments on complex hydropower projects world-wide • a wide variety of projects at different stages of development • management and coordination of interdisciplinary teams for design and construction • expert technical inputs into other ongoing projects

We expect well-founded expertise and a strong character profile:

5+ years of project design and construction experience • hydraulic design, CFRD and rockfill engineering and geotechnical engineering specialization • ability to prepare reports and technical papers • cultural sensitivity • willingness to travel • fluency in written and spoken English

We look forward to receiving your application - and the pleasure of meeting you personally:

AF-Colenco AG
Bianca Wisner, HR Recruiting Manager
Täferstrasse 26, 5405 Baden-Dättwil, Switzerland
Tel. +41 (0)56 483 12 04
swiss-careers@afconsult.com www.af-colenco.com

Dr. Dieter Müller
Head of Hydropower Plants
Department